Safe space: Isanti County earns Heart Safe Community title

BY JENNIFER KOTLA
Senior Staff Writer

Isanti County earned the prestigious title of Heart Safe Community, a designation that recognizes communities that have taken steps to reduce the risk of heart disease and stroke. The county, along with Breckenridge, Cambridge and Isanti, were designated Heart Safe Communities during a presentation at the June 19 Isanti County Board meeting—a great milestone that has been striving to reach for the past 10 years.

Steve Hinderer, Isanti County Health Director for Heart Safe Communities, gave a brief history of the work needed to accomplish the goal, and presented participants and program to a member of the key figures who helped in the process.

In early 2009, Isanti County Public Health, Adina Health EMS, Adina Health Center/Maple Medical Center and Maple Hill Hospital Partnership joined and started toward the goal of making Isanti County a Heart Safe community. Launching the work was through a partnership with Adina EMS, Kathy Minkler (Isanti County Public Health—medical) and Dr. Mark Trapper (Medical Director of Cambridge Medical Center).

"The idea was that all cities and townships would be prepared for cardiac arrest at work, at school and at home," Hinderer said, noting that through many partnerships and with the support of public funds and private donors throughout the years, the county
